

What: Cluster 2 Winter Meeting

When: January 27, 2011
9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Where: Alameda County Office of Education
333 West Winton Way
Hayward, CA 94544

Who Should Attend: Directors, Coordinators and those working directly with your BTSA program; teams are encouraged to attend.

Why: Provide support for each other through leadership structures and connections, continue to look at concepts of effectiveness that relate to teaching and learning, extend knowledge base of technological tools for use in our work

Special Afternoon Presentation:

Rushton Hurley, a Google-certified teacher will introduce participants to free, web-based, resources that will be useful to them in their administrative and professional developer roles. Demonstrations will directly support the technology needed to meet accreditation requirements, such as creating a website where program assessment and site visit documents may be uploaded and stored for retrieval by reviewers. Rushton has trained educators around the United States, presenting at national and regional conferences. His fun and thoughtful talks center on the connection between engaging learning and useful, affordable technology, as well as professional perspectives of teachers.

Registration Fee: $75.00 Per participant
Includes light breakfast, lunch, and materials
(Payable to Monterey County Office of Education)
